

Greg Hamilton

Signature Program Class of 2014

Publisher and Co-Founder, Arlington Magazine

Greg Hamilton is the publisher and co-founder of Arlington Magazine. He has more than 20 years of experience in magazine publishing and digital media. Prior to launching Arlington Magazine, Greg was the chief marketing officer for Congressional Quarterly. He also held senior management roles at Atlantic Media and SmartBrief.

Greg earned his MBA from Georgetown University and his undergraduate degree from the University of Richmond. He serves on the boards of Leadership Arlington, the Arlington Chamber of Commerce, the Arlington Community Foundation and the Arlington YMCA. He is also a 2014 graduate of Leadership Arlington's Signature Program. Greg and his wife Maureen live with their three daughters in the Tara-Leeway Heights neighborhood.