

JULIE KENNEALLY

COMMUNICATIONS MANAGER

Julie Kenneally joined the Leadership Center of Excellence in 2016 as the Communications Manager. She previously worked on the communications team at Safe Kids Worldwide, a department of Children's National Medical Center.

Julie first moved to the D.C. metropolitan area since 2008, after graduating from Elon University where she studied Political Science and International Studies. Julie was awarded the Ambassadorial Scholarship from the Rotary Foundation and was therefore able to attend graduate school at the University of Aberdeen in Scotland where she earned a Master's of Science in Strategic Studies.

Outside of work, Julie is a member of the board for the Washington Field Hockey Association, a co-ed adult field hockey club in the D.C. area. She loves hiking and being active, especially when she can bring along her Shiba Inu puppy. She currently resides in the Courthouse neighborhood of Arlington.
