

KATE FRANTZ

DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATIONS

Kate Frantz is a native Arlingtonian. In May 2012, she graduated Summa Cum Laude from Marymount University, having earned a B.A. in Fashion Merchandising with a minor in Business Administration. While in school, Frantz was selected to be the Head Coordinator of Public Relations for the largest campus-wide event. During this time, Frantz's love for communications, public relations and marketing grew rapidly.

Frantz joined Leadership Center for Excellence in 2012 as Communications Coordinator. Her responsibilities quickly advanced, resulting in promotion to Communications Manager, followed by Communications & Client Manager.

In October 2016, Frantz moved into the Director of Marketing position with Mid-States Management, a restaurant group in which she oversaw all marketing efforts from high-level strategy through execution for three brands – Blackwall Hitch, The Greene Turtle and Roy Rogers – with 12 locations across the East Coast.

Enthusiastically, Frantz rejoined the Leadership Center for Excellence team in August 2017. She is excited to return in a high-capacity role as Director of Communications and once again be part of an innovative organization which she truly supports.
