

CAITLIN MCKELWAY

EVENTS MANAGER

Caitlin McKelway joined Leadership Center for Excellence in September 2017. She is a 2012 graduate of the University of Virginia and has spent the last five years gaining experience in events, communications, project management and community engagement. She joins LCE after serving as Events Manager/Section & Committee Liaison at the Virginia Bar Association and as Legal and Marketing Assistant at Spotts Fain PC.

McKelway is passionate about community service. She has most recently served in volunteer roles as an ESL Instructor, Board Member for the UVa Club of Richmond and Co-Chair for the club's community service committee, "Cavaliers Care."

A native of Richmond, Virginia, McKelway brings a passion for learning and travel to her new home in Arlington. She studied in Valencia, Spain and lived in Xela, Guatemala where she served as Coordinator for a rural town's Family Support Center. She looks forward to exploring the DC area's service opportunities, restaurants, music venues and hiking/biking trails.
