

BARBIE PARKS

ACCOUNTING MANAGER

After college, Barbie Parks moved to the Washington, DC area to get involved in the documentary film industry. Parks was the co-founder of Dominion Post, Inc., a broadcast television company where she ran the day to day operations and financial side of the successful business for over 20 years.

Recently, Parks has been helping other small business owners and independent contractors with their accounting and HR needs. Her experience ranges from corporate startups to running the office of a multi-million-dollar restaurant group. She is a QuickBooks certified Pro Advisor and, being very detailed oriented, actually likes working with numbers!

Parks holds a Bachelor's degree in Communications from the University of Memphis. She and her husband Bill live in McLean, Virginia. They have two daughters, Jenny and Melissa, who are recent college graduates. Parks is also passionate about tennis and her Springer Spaniel, Cisco.
