40 Under 40 Luncheon Recognized Local Leaders

Arlington, VA - Leadership Center for Excellence held its fourth annual 40 Under 40 honoree luncheon at Army Navy Country Club in Arlington, VA on Thursday, November 30, 2017. Held in partnership with Arlington Economic Development, Arlington Community Foundation, the Arlington Chamber of Commerce and Sun Gazette, more than 200 guests registered for this event.

The 40 Under 40 event honored forty trailblazers who have demonstrated exceptional leadership in the personal or professional spheres and who are devoted to making positive change within our community. This event was an opportunity to support and recognize these leaders, and Leadership Center for Excellence hopes that they will further create valuable social capital for this region. "To the 40 Under 40 Honorees, we are confident the future of our region is bright because of your innovation and leadership," said Betsy Frantz, President & CEO of Leadership Center for Excellence. "You each embody the values and characteristics of true servant leaders. We look forward to following your vision and passion in the future. We hope that by recognizing and connecting this generation of trailblazers, we will equip them with the tools to continue leading and strengthening our region."
