

LISA FIKES

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF VOLUNTEER ARLINGTON

Born in Memphis, Tennessee, Lisa Fikes is a graduate of Rhodes College. She moved to Arlington in 1998 and served as the Associate for Youth and Children's Ministries at St. John's Episcopal Church in McLean, Virginia for 18 years.

When Leadership Center for Excellence was awarded the Arlington County contract to manage Volunteer Arlington, Fikes was hired as its Director in September 2016. Partnering with over 190 local nonprofit and county organizations, Fikes works with her team to connect individuals, groups and businesses with local volunteer opportunities.

With a passion for celebrating volunteerism and connecting community members of all ages with opportunities to serve others, Fikes also enjoys her time on the Marymount Service Center Advisory Council, APAH's Community Progress Network, Inter-Service Club Council and the Arlington Chamber's Community Action Committee.

She and her husband, David, reside in Falls Church and are the proud parents of a seven-year-old daughter, Harper.
