George Mason President to Discuss Higher Education in Workforce Development at Leadership Arlington Speaker Series: "A Conversation with Dr. Ángel Cabrera"

Arlington, VA - Leadership Arlington will dive into the role of higher education in workforce development during an upcoming Speaker Series entitled "A Conversation with Dr. Ángel Cabrera" at the WETA (2775 S. Quincy Street, Arlington, VA 22206) on Wednesday, February 26 from 11:30am until 1:30pm.

Dr. Angel Cabrera, President of George Mason University, will address the role of higher education in preparing students for the workforce of the future. Additionally, Dr. Cabrera will present initiatives from George Mason University's strategic plan that will make Mason's educational offerings more innovative, diverse, entrepreneurial and accessible. This Speaker Series will share Dr. Cabrera's insights on workforce development.

Lyles Carr, Senior Vice President of The McCormick Group, will moderate this discussion. Lyles has vast knowledge and experience in HR and workforce development. He was named to Washington Business Journal's Power 100 in 2012.

To register for this event, please visit the Leadership Arlington website at www.leadershiparlington.org. Admission is $40 for Leadership Arlington members and $50 for the general public. Lunch and materials are included.

Thank you to our Premiere Series Sponsor, Catering by LT, and our February Supporting Sponsor, BB&T.
