Leadership Arlington Names Ted Bilich as New Board Chair

Arlington, VA - Leadership Arlington is proud to announce that Ted Bilich has been appointed as Chair of the organization's Board of Regents, beginning his term on July 1. Mr. Bilich is a Visiting Professor of Law at Georgetown University School of Law and completed the Leadership Arlington Signature Program in 2009. Mr. Bilich's commitment to the Arlington community is evident through his award-winning pro bono service as a lawyer and many years of service he has donated to the boards and commissions of several nonprofit and civic organizations.

Ted Bilich

Brian Scull

Brian Scull was selected as the Chair-Elect. He is Principal of Development Operations at The Shooshan Company and a member of the Leadership Arlington Signature Program Class of 2009.

"Ted is the right leader at the right time to lead our organization as we embark on new horizons," said Betsy Frantz, President & CEO of Leadership Arlington. "With the many visionary leaders who comprise our Board, we are looking forward to continued growth and impact in our community."
