

David Barkley
Chair of the Board of Regents

---

Leadership Arlington Class of 2011
Business Initiatives Director, Freddie Mac

David Barkley is Business Initiatives Director in Freddie Mac's Single Family Business Division. His efforts direct Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac to establish industry standards that enhance loan quality.

David received the real estate finance industry's professional designation, the Certified Mortgage Banker (CMB), in October 2006 and his Project Management Professional (PMP) designation in June 2009. For his work in the industry, David was recognized by "Mortgage Banking" Magazine as one of 2004's Mortgage Banking All-Stars.

Before joining Freddie Mac, David worked for the Mortgage Bankers Association, the Mortgage Banking Service Corporation, and a telecommunications subsidiary of NCR. David's background is in telecommunications and marketing. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from Davidson College, Davidson, North Carolina, and a Masters of Arts in Telecommunications from George Washington University, Washington, DC.

Board of Regents